DECLARATION OF PRIOR INVENTION IN THE UNITED STATES TO OVERCOME
CITED PATENT OR PUBLICATION
(37 CFR RULE 1.131)

Dear Examiner Chieu:

This declaration is to establish conception of the invention prior to February 21, 1996, which is the earliest effective filing date of the Fujita et al reference, coupled with diligence up until a reduction to practice of the invention in March of 1996.

The person making this declaration is Randall A. Hoeffler, a co-inventor of the present application.

FACTS AND DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE

Exhibit "A" is a purchase order between my employer, Phototelesis Corporation, and a parts supplier, Merlin Corporation. This purchase order illustrates the purchase of ten (10) ME-971 stand alone scan converters by Phototelesis corporation for use with an early version of the above invention. Specifically, the product purchased from Merlin Corporation was utilized with an early non-integrated embodiment of the image capture and retrieval device of the above application.

This earlier, non-integrated version of the invention was tested and found to be lacking in several areas. As a result, the invention actually claimed in the above application was conceived of to address the shortcomings of this earlier non-integrated unit. Specifically, the above testing led us to develop a lightweight, integrated image capture and retrieval system equipped with combined functionality.

This integrated version of the invention was conceived of well before the date of February 21, 1996, which is the earliest effective U.S. filing date of the Fujita et al reference. Thus, the date of the purchase order, attached as Exhibit "A", is earlier than our date of conception of the invention claimed in the above application and has been overlaid by the term "DATE". All of the events described above took place prior to February 21, 1996.

DILIGENCE

The invention of the above application was further refined and improved during the subsequent period up until an actual reduction to practice of the invention in March of 1996. Exhibit "B" is an assembly drawing, dated March 18, 1996, illustrating the integrated components of the present application including the CPU (1), recorder/playback unit (upper 3), remote control unit (2) and interface unit (lower 3). To the best of my knowledge, earlier versions of this drawing were not retained and only "last edit" drawings, such as Exhibit "B", are available for attachment to this declaration.

In March of 1996, the invention of the above application was reduced to practice and tested. In fact, I personally installed the invention on an aircraft and tested it under actual flight conditions during this timeframe.

TIME OF PRESENTATION

This declaration is being presented along with a formal response to office action filed in conjunction with a Request for Continued Examination, and is thus timely.
